

Allen Sabey

Allen Laverl Sabey, 69, died September 5, 1996, at his home in Wallsburg. Born August 26, 1926 in Wallsburg, Utah to Laverl and Viola Mecham Sabey.

Operated a shoe repair business in Heber City for many years. Active member LDS Deaf branch in Provo. Enjoyed the outdoors, especially hunting and fishing. Also enjoyed visiting friends and neighbors. Because of his parents early death, he was raised by his grandparents, Nettie and Ed Sabey. He had a close and loving relationship with his special aunts and uncles, Reta Ford, Lila Robey, Norma Sabey and Fern Sabey.

Survived by sister: Mrs. Keith (Faye) Mecham, Wallsburg; nephews and niece: Randell and Debi Mecham, Orem; Laverl and Sheri Mecham, Wallsburg; Don and Pam Mecham, Clinton; Tammy and Keith Tanner, Payson.

Funeral services, Friday, 11 a.m., Wallsburg First Ward, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Burial, Wallsburg Cemetery.

Allen Sabey

Allen LaVerl Sabey, 69, died September 5, 1985, at his home in Wallsburg. Born August 26, 1926 in Wallsburg, Utah to LaVerl and Viola Mecham Sabey.

Operated a shoe repair business in Heber City for many years. Active member LDS Deaf branch in Provo. Enjoyed the outdoors, especially hunting and fishing. Also enjoyed visiting friends and neighbors. Because of his parents' early death, he was raised by his grandparents, Nettie and Ed Sabey. He had a close and loving relationship with his special aunts and uncles, Beta Ford, Lila Robey, Norma Sabey and Fern Sabey.

Survived by sister: Mrs. Keith (Faye) Mecham, Wallsburg; nephews and nieces: Randall and Debi Mecham, Orem; LaVerl and Sheri Mecham, Wallsburg; Don and Pam Mecham, Clinton; Tammy and Keith Tanner, Payson.

Funeral services, Friday, 11 a.m., Wallsburg First Ward, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Burial, Wallsburg Cemetery.

Art I. Sabey

LEHI—Arthur (Art) Sabey, 78, died Nov. 5, 1995 of his home of a heart attack.

He was born April 3, 1917 in Lehi, Utah to Aaron and Ivey Sorenson.

Art spent much of his working career as Sergeant of Guards at the U.S. Steel Plant. He was involved in numerous civic activities at Lehi City which included publicly chairman for the Lehi Roundup and was voted Grand Marshal for the Roundup parade. He spent a great deal of time as a sports official in football, basketball, and baseball and was noted for his excellence in officiating by coaches throughout the state. He officiated a game with the Harlem Globetrotters. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, traveling, comedy, literature, and being involved in humanitarian activities. Art's greatest passion in life was his children and grandchildren. They were paramount to him.

Art married Odessa Zimmerman on January 24, 1938 and they were later sealed in the Provo Temple. He served two years as an ordinance worker at the Provo Temple. Odessa cherished and supported Art and she was his first in priorities of his life. They traveled extensively throughout the U.S. He lived a full rich life and definitely did it "his way."

Art is survived by his wife, Odessa, of Lehi; daughter and son, Valdess (Kelli) Roberts, Lehi; Mike (Edna) Sabey, Alpine; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; brother, Soren Sabey, American Fork; two sisters, Elsie Thompson, Lehi; Nyda Snow, Copperton.

Funeral Wednesday, November 8, 1995 at 2 p.m. in the Lehi 12th Ward LDS Chapel, 1095 No. 300 West. Friends may call at the Wing Mortuary, Tuesday evening from 7-9 p.m. and at the church, Wednesday one hour prior to services. Burial will be in the Lehi City Cemetery.

Patton — Sabey

Brett Sabey, formerly of Charleston, and Katherine Patton, of Denver, CO, were married in an outdoor setting at his home in Vernal on Dec. 22. An Open House and dance will be held on Jan. 7, 1995, at the Western Park, 302 East 200 South, in Vernal, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

No invitations will be sent. Friends and family are invited to share in their happiness.